On account of an unusually long period of cold weather during the year more fuel was necessary to heat the schoolrooms and an overdraft of the appropriations was made by several districts. These overdrafts were considered by the joint board of school visitors and selectmen and it was found that the expenditures in excess of the amount previously fixed upon was necessary to maintain the school or schools of the districts for the time required by law.

was necessary to maintain the school or schools of the districts for the time required by law.

At a meeting held during May the acting school visitor was empowered to confer with such authority as he wished in order to revise the present course of study in use in the several schools. This matter is under consideration at the time of closing this report and will be more fully taken up in the report of next year.

Thirty-two children residing in the town of Griswold have attended non-local schools during the year as follows: Norwich Free Academy, 27; the Plainfield High school, 4; Windham High School, 1

THEFTS OF METAL

Get Four Boys in Police Court-Effort to be Made to Discover "Fence," Who Received Stolen Articles.

Monday evening four Polish boys, ranging in ages from 11 to 13 years, were presented before Judge A. M. Brown in the town court, charged with the theft of brass and copper which they took from a hoisting engine, automobile or other machinery which they could get at. Horace Dawley, Dennis Lee and E. G. Lague were among those who had suffered from these thefts. Judge Brown, in view of the age of the boys and the fact that the parents paid all costs and made reasonable reimbursements, put them on probation until Dec. 23. Two of the boys have been in the courts here before for similar offences, and another infraction of the law will send them to reform school. Their liftings of metal has been wholesale and right of metal has been wholesale and right in the open; the judge said they seemed to have no conception of right and wrong.
